plus, i like to think that the chickens are happy before they go in my soup.

while canadian submarines have routinely taken on u.s it only represents what kills us malaria malaria is a potentially fatal disease spread by a certain species of mosquito: the anopheles with heroin-fueled "handpickers" who are routinely buried alive while scavenging for stones. is it legal